fusal of Reorganizers to Accept Sop From Machine Shows the Feeling.

VHY MR. BLAIR DECLINED

The Republican State, convention at Norfolk is now a part of history, but the loreness as a result of the fierce factional fight there has by no means ended. The positive declination of Colonel Slemp o accept the position of delegate-at-large eaves a vacancy to be filled in the delegation, for the Colonel will not reconsider. National Committeeman Bowder National Committeeman Bowder, that the refusal was buncombe, and that the congressman will be found in the big convention when the roll is called out yonder. Those identified with he other faction are positive that he will not.

he other faction are positive that he will not.

Mr. L. P. Summers arose to nominate Mr. Robert W. Blair about midnight, and while the two factions were endeavoring o get District Attorney Lowis to accept place as delegate-at-large along with Zolonel Siemp. Had the two 'representatives of the reorganizers agreed to accept and had they been named, Mr. Blair vould have accepted the nomination as selector-at-large. It is true he had asked dr. Summers to nominate him, but just before the orator named his carddate, he determination of Judge Lewis to accept as delegate was communicated to Mr. Blair, and he sent word to Mr. Jummers that he would not accept as dector. Mr. Summers had begun his preech and continued it, nominating Mr. Blair.

The executive committee selected by

The executive committee selected by he convention was made up as follows, ifter hard fights in several districts for the positions:

First District, John M. Griffin; Secand District, Thomas Lowery; Third Disrict, C. P. Snead; Fourth District, Stith Solling; Fifth District, S. G. Proffit; ikkih District, W. H. Fankner; Seventh Sistrict, C. M. Gibbons; Eighth District,
it. L. Crupper; Ninth District, A. P. strother; Tenth District, S. Brown, Allen.

As stated yesterdey, R. T. Thorp, of Norfolk city, and L. P. Summers, of Washington county, were named as electors-at-large on the national ticket.

The electors for the districts are: First District, Thomas Ball; Second District, V. S. Holland; Third District, Royall E. V. S. Watter, C. D. David. A. S. Holland; Third District, Royali E. Zabell; Fourth District, L. O. Davis; Ifth District, Dexter Goad; Sixth District, J. W. Hartwell; Seventh District, I. R. Curran; Eighth District, W. B. Clug; Ninth District, ind yet announced; enth District, II. L. Garrett.

One of the incidents of the convention was the refusal of Rov. Pivul Whitehead, D. D. to open the convention with rayer. Assistant District Attorney rugh Gordon Miller, who, as a committee tone, went to invite him, is authority or the statement that Dr. Whitehead inted, in declining, that he was afraid copie might think he was a Republican. Then we'll pray for you, Doctor," said Ir, Miller. "It seems to me you need itr prayers worse than we do yours."

The report of the Resolutions Committ-a was never made to the convention. was adopted on faith without being and to the body. The report was nover $1. oraplied. As offered, it consisted of it. or colled. As offered, it consisted of enough typewritten matter to make even columns of print, being made up of series of long resolutions and preambles flered, but various interests that defred endorsement by the convention. The tate gathering was agrindstone and all the had axes brought them thither to ave them edged. There was a long resolution in relation to Lumestown, another ion in relation to Jamestown, anothe byard in favor of the passage of the subisidy bill, another in favor of onvention was the utter impotence and ubmissiveness of the negro, who ap-eared to realize that he was present pared to icalize that he was present ally by sufferance and conducted himself ith becoming humility. The Third. ourth, Second and First Districts in the der named, embraced the majority of no negro delegates, the Third largely rranging for the convention and assignig the district delegations to seats evi-ently, had an eye to color, and so pro-ded for the delegations that almost very negro delegate was relegated to the instrict, which did not reach the floor f the convention. It was over the choice f executive committeeman for the distict with Mr. Edgar Allan and Mr. C. P. t the West Point convention it had been greed to leave to arbitration the se-action of the man. Judge Lewis, Conressman Slemp and Mr. Robert H. An-ell were to teh arbiters. According a statement made yesterday, the vote Chesterfield county decided the matter, seems that the real contests was as to is seems that the real contests was as to his delegation of four.

One of the conspicuous figures on the loor and on the stage during the conention was Colonel James S. Brownig, of Pocahonias, who was the real foor leader of the Slemp wing. Colonel Browning was a member of the staff of fovernor Cameron and thus received his life. He is a man of large wealth and filuence and of no small ability, and ras especially influential, on the floor of the convention by reason of his comanding voice which could be heard even in a tumult. There was something about its manner and tones, too, that hushed he discord whenever he sought to make limed heard.

When Mr. Thorp first mentioned the ame of Mr. Agnew for temporary chairman, that gentleman relinquished the avel in favor of Mr. D. Lawrence Groer, who presided during the timult inident to this first and only real test of trength. Mr. Groner made an admirable presiding order, but even he could ot control the convention until he had ammered a slab of misribe into fragaents with his gavel. He appealed to the onvention not to give the Democratic ewspapers a chance to say that a deleate could not get a hearing in a Resublican State Convention. Immediately here was a hush, and there was better rifer after that.
